GENERAL CLARK'S COMMENTS. He Disapproves of Territorial Government -

Report on Collector's Office. General W. T. Clark, of Washington, special examiner of the treasury depariment, before leaving for El Paso, spoke very favorably of the climate, resources and the people of New Mexico, says the New Mexican. He thinks New Mexico will be granted statehood as soon as its people have demonstrated their fitness for self government. Theoretically he does not believe in a torritorial form of government, and believes that all citizens within the United States should have equal privileges. He speaks very highly of Judge A. L. Morrison, the internal revenue collector of New Mexico and Arizona, and says that his office in the federal building in this city, is one of the best, if not the best conducted revenue office in the country. He added that Judge Morrison has an unusually able force of assistants, and that he found all the books and records in perfect condition.

been almost lifetens since our last repart. There has been but little inquiry for any kind of stock, as most of the manufacturers have been practically out of the market, being pretty well supplied for the time being and not being tempted to buy. Those who are not plentifully supplied have been holding off, pending the opening of the London Transito Martinez.

Transito Martinez.

Fully, H. Lerten, wool sales, and the frat that these cales opened Tuesday at a decime of 75/610 per cent has not been calculated to induce them to hasten their purchases of raw material. In such a dull condition of affairs the market is naturally a little weak, although at this writing the owners of wool have not munifested any marked disposition to press sales, as they well know that many manufacturcrs are so well stocked with wool that it would require considerable concession to induce them to take hold.
